Three community leaders working with the AJS-supported Land project in the city of San Pedro Sula have been killed this month. Four more community leaders continue to receive death threats. Alleged land owners are trying to stop several communities obtain land titles through a government expropriation process and they are going to extreme measures to try and do it.

Pray for strength and peace for the families of slain leaders Ubense Aguilar and Elías Murcia.

Pray for courage and security for currently threatened community leaders in Cofradia.

Pray for wisdom and perseverance for the Land Rights team as they forge forward in the expropriation process in order that hundred may receive legal land titles.
