

AJS Printable Scavenger Hunt

Cut out each clue, and hide it where it tells you to.

Introduction:

As people, we can learn from each other and the different ways we understand justice in this world. Everyone has their own experiences and perspectives and gifts and abilities. You'll find different perspectives almost everywhere as soon as you start to look. Normally, we look to other people, but have you ever stopped to listen to the different perspectives sitting all around you in your house?

Clue #1 (Hand me directly to player.)

So today, let's go ahead and feed our souls, we'll give a break to our pie-holes, but let's look for clues low and high, and let's start where we would bake a pie.

Clue #2 (Hide me in/near the oven. And make sure it's not hot!)

It's just not fair, that guy over there... So fast does he cook his food, and I just don't think it's as good, but he does have your next clue.

Clue #3 (Hide me in the microwave.)

I'm proud of my heating proficiency, but I'm way behind when it comes to efficiency. I might heat up your leftover kielbasa, but I wish I could heat your entire casa, like the place where you'll find your next clue.

Clue #4 (Hide me near your central heating system.)

So I keep you hot, but it's really what I'm not, that preoccupies most of my thought. I wish I was clean, like the clothes that I've seen, after they come out of the machine, that has your next clue.

Clue #5 (Hide me in/near your washing machine.)

Well sure, I do lot of work, but the thing that really hurts, is that no one will spend time with me, the way they do when they watch TV, with the thing they sit on where you'll find your next clue.

Clue #6 (Hide me on/near a couch or chair where you watch TV.)

Well yes, people spend time with me, but it's very low quality. Even though I do my best, I can't offer as much rest, as the place where you lay your head, where you'll find your next clue.

Clue #7 (Hide me near the player's pillow.)

When you sleep you might lay here, but I wish you would stay here. I may offer rest, but I can't give you the zest, that you get from the brown drink made by the machine where you'll find your next clue.

Clue #8 (Hide me near your coffee maker.)

So I may make your coffee hot, but you would probably rather not, use my coffee to clean your dishes and shower, for that you need something with a little more power, that keeps all your water warm for hours, where you'll find your next clue.

Clue #9 (Hide me near your water heater.)

I'm glad I can help keep your water so warm, but that could actually do some harm, to many of the things you eat every day, and there's nothing I can do or say, that would make me as good at storing food, like the place where you'll find your final clue.

Final Clue #10 (Hide me in/near your refrigerator.)

Congratulations, you've reached the end! But for the real treasure, there's more of a hunt, my friend.

As your day you continue to go about, consider the special ways each of these items has helped you out.

Give thanks for each item and its special job for you, and take some time to think about what special jobs you could do.

What are the gifts that make you unique?

How do you think God wants to use you to help bring justice to this world?

How does God want to use your special gifts to make this world a better place for everyone?
